

Get Your Next Standard Pattern Free!

This week, or next week or the week after you will probably want a Standard Pattern, either for yourself or one of the little folks. Buy a Standard Fashion Book. It is a practical, complete reference book of wearing apparel, indispensable to every woman who sews and wants to be up to the minute in style. And it is the biggest bargain of the season for it costs only 5c more than the pattern you are about to buy, 20c over the counter, 25c by mail, including a certificate for one Standard Pattern free.

PERRY & CAMP.

Telephone 9-4. 71 and 75 Main Street, Barre, Vt.

Money Back if not Satisfied

This is the reason for our exceptionally large trade. It's the confidence our customers have in the goods we sell. We are more than pleased with the results of our sales from our window display of new Rugs. It convinces us that people all like to keep ahead of the season.

This week we are showing another article that we all like to sit around when the first cool evenings come. THE LIBRARY TABLE. Be sure and have one bought and in its place before cool evenings get here.

B. W. HOOKER & CO, Barre, Vt.

CITY UNDERTAKERS.

Improved Ambulance Service. Orders Promptly Attended To

Neckwear for the Distinctive Dresser

Your attention is cordially invited to an extensive collection of patterns and colorings in Men's Ties and Cravats especially designed for summer wear. Our range of exclusive ideas in foreign and domestic weaves is unusually broad. Our assortments are extremely strong in all grades from the lowest priced to the highest quality creations. Bartheas, Foulards, Sourahs and various Jacquards constitute the principal weaves. Plain colors, plaids, figures and polka spots are very popular designs. The medium sizes Four-in-hands and Broad Bow Ties are the leading summer shapes. Browns, Navies, Greys, Pearls, Wine and Lilac and favorite colorings. If interested in fine neckwear at a popular price, see our great assortment at 50c.

MOORE & OWENS,

122 North Main St., Barre, Vermont

Beware of House Flies!

They are often laden with deadly disease germs. Science says that house flies should be destroyed. The best destroyer we know of is our Extra Strong Dalmatian Powder.

It will deal out death to other insects as well as flies. Non-poisonous to humans. Best way to use it is to blow it from an insect powder gun. They cost but 5c each. Insect Powder, 5c oz., 12c 1/4 lb., 35c lb. Fly paper and poisons of all kinds.

C. H. KENDRICK & CO.,

54 North Main Street. DRUGGISTS.

Crockery Sale!

Having purchased the entire stock of Crockery and China of the late J. K. Lynde estate of Williamstown, Vt., we have placed it on our mammoth clearance tables at prices you can't afford to let pass. Much of it less than wholesale prices.

30 Per Cent Discount on All Hammocks.

New Arrival of Suit Cases and Club Bags—Don't buy until you have seen them and got our prices, which are right.

Fine Toilet Soaps

Just received a large shipment of fine Toilet Soaps direct from the manufacturers. Some great values for 5c and 10c. Step in and see for yourselves.

C. N. KENYON & CO.'S

CASH BARGAIN STORE,

185-187 North Main Street. (Telephone 123-12) Barre, Vermont.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Get the "Comique" habit.

Mrs. Emma Gamble of Boston is visiting Mrs. D. F. Davis.

One case new wash goods go on sale Thursday at Vaughan's.

Mrs. Walter Chase of Hanover, N. H., is visiting friends in the city.

George H. Wells of Burlington was a business visitor in the city today.

Joseph Norton of Lynn, Mass., is visiting Mrs. J. A. Sherburne of Elm street.

Uneda, 4 cents a box. Where? The Department Food Store. When? Now!

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Freeman of Richmond visited relatives in the city today.

Mrs. Mary Flint of Denver, Colorado, is visiting her niece, Miss L. Belle Chandler.

Cabbage free with every order of corn beef Thursday only at the New Central market.

Ray O. Worthen and John McGowan left today to spend a vacation near Littleton, N. H.

For sale: Two new milch cows for sale. Inquire of A. M. Morrison, 59 South Main street.

Miss Bessie Cave and Mrs. Frank Cave returned yesterday from a two weeks vacation at Old Orchard Beach, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Grainger returned last night from a two weeks' visit at Tinwick and Naperville, Que.

Mrs. J. B. George returned from Washington yesterday, where she has been visiting for the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Cutler returned yesterday from Old Orchard Beach, Me., where they have been on an outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Sawyer and C. H. Sawyer attended the funeral of Mrs. Polly Knapp at Montpelier today.

Bargain hunters should visit the People's shoe store where there are many offerings at less than cost.

A regular meeting of Bright Star Rebekah Lodge No. 18 will be held Wednesday evening August 5, at 8 o'clock.

Manager J. E. Hoban of the Barre opera house returned yesterday from a visit of a few days at his former home in Claremont, N. H.

Miss Mildred Wheeler, who has been the guest of Miss Nellie Stoughton for the past two weeks, returned to her home in Taunton, Mass., today.

Fred L. Page, who for the past two months has been at Old Orchard, Me., superintending the construction of an annex to the Granite City cottage for E. L. Smith, is home now and ready to resume business.

Among arrivals at the Hotel Otis yesterday and today are: H. H. Carroll, White River Junction; Charles Thomas, Boston; H. Stevens, Troy, N. Y.; J. S. Carleton, Boston; J. B. Hill, Corinth; W. J. Utten, Morrisville; F. S. Retan, Burlington; Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Field, Boston.

Roach Bros. announce another program of unusual interest to-night at the Comique. The title of the picture is "The Boston Tea Party." The picture was made by the Edison company, and is considered one of the best American pictures made.

Arrangements are being completed for a visit of the Greensboro golf club to Barre and Montpelier on Friday and Saturday of this week. It is expected that the visitors will play against the Montpelier Country club on the former day and against the Barre Golf club on Saturday.

At the Bijou today there are three new pictures and a song. There's one funny picture, an exciting drama, and another all around good one. The song is "The Red, White and Blue," which will be illustrated by showing the U. S. flag in different places. There is a nickel's worth in today's show without doubt.

The Bennett-Moulton repertoire company will present a series of first class plays at the opera house commencing Monday, Aug. 10, for one week. The opening play will be "The Man Without a Country." Popular prices, 10c, 20c, 30c, will prevail during the engagement, and for Monday night only, ladies' special 15c tickets will be sold. Number limited to 300.

A considerable number of taxpayers will have cause to regret it if they do not call at the city clerk's office during the next four days and settle their 1908 tax bills, as the time for receiving taxes by the clerk closes next Monday night. After that the tax bills will be turned over to the collector, with the costs of collection added. Mr. Mackay reports that the property taxes are coming in well, but the poll taxes are a little slow.

Charles Holt celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday Friday, many of his friends and relatives being present to assist him. Mr. Holt is a very active man and in good health, as the following will show: on Thursday Mr. Holt saved one and one-half cords of four foot wood in two twice—not a bad record.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Letters and son returned to their home in Leominster, Mass., Saturday, after spending several weeks at John Shorey's.

The funeral of the late Courtland Perry was held Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church. Rev. W. E. Braisted of Barre officiating. The burial was at the Center cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cutting went to their cottage at Groton Pond Wednesday for several days' outing. During Mr. Cutting's absence, the station will be in charge of E. H. Kiser and Edwin Cutting.

Plainfield Military Band will give an open air concert and lawn party Saturday evening on the lawn in front of E. F. Leavitt's residence. Ice cream and cake will be served. The members of the band cordially invite everyone to be present. A good musical program is anticipated.

Charles Holt celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday Friday, many of his friends and relatives being present to assist him. Mr. Holt is a very active man and in good health, as the following will show: on Thursday Mr. Holt saved one and one-half cords of four foot wood in two twice—not a bad record.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Letters and son returned to their home in Leominster, Mass., Saturday, after spending several weeks at John Shorey's.

The funeral of the late Courtland Perry was held Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church. Rev. W. E. Braisted of Barre officiating. The burial was at the Center cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cutting went to their cottage at Groton Pond Wednesday for several days' outing. During Mr. Cutting's absence, the station will be in charge of E. H. Kiser and Edwin Cutting.

Plainfield Military Band will give an open air concert and lawn party Saturday evening on the lawn in front of E. F. Leavitt's residence. Ice cream and cake will be served. The members of the band cordially invite everyone to be present. A good musical program is anticipated.

Charles Holt celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday Friday, many of his friends and relatives being present to assist him. Mr. Holt is a very active man and in good health, as the following will show: on Thursday Mr. Holt saved one and one-half cords of four foot wood in two twice—not a bad record.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Letters and son returned to their home in Leominster, Mass., Saturday, after spending several weeks at John Shorey's.

The funeral of the late Courtland Perry was held Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church. Rev. W. E. Braisted of Barre officiating. The burial was at the Center cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cutting went to their cottage at Groton Pond Wednesday for several days' outing. During Mr. Cutting's absence, the station will be in charge of E. H. Kiser and Edwin Cutting.

Plainfield Military Band will give an open air concert and lawn party Saturday evening on the lawn in front of E. F. Leavitt's residence. Ice cream and cake will be served. The members of the band cordially invite everyone to be present. A good musical program is anticipated.

Charles Holt celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday Friday, many of his friends and relatives being present to assist him. Mr. Holt is a very active man and in good health, as the following will show: on Thursday Mr. Holt saved one and one-half cords of four foot wood in two twice—not a bad record.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Letters and son returned to their home in Leominster, Mass., Saturday, after spending several weeks at John Shorey's.

The funeral of the late Courtland Perry was held Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church. Rev. W. E. Braisted of Barre officiating. The burial was at the Center cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cutting went to their cottage at Groton Pond Wednesday for several days' outing. During Mr. Cutting's absence, the station will be in charge of E. H. Kiser and Edwin Cutting.

Plainfield Military Band will give an open air concert and lawn party Saturday evening on the lawn in front of E. F. Leavitt's residence. Ice cream and cake will be served. The members of the band cordially invite everyone to be present. A good musical program is anticipated.

Charles Holt celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday Friday, many of his friends and relatives being present to assist him. Mr. Holt is a very active man and in good health, as the following will show: on Thursday Mr. Holt saved one and one-half cords of four foot wood in two twice—not a bad record.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Letters and son returned to their home in Leominster, Mass., Saturday, after spending several weeks at John Shorey's.

The funeral of the late Courtland Perry was held Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church. Rev. W. E. Braisted of Barre officiating. The burial was at the Center cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cutting went to their cottage at Groton Pond Wednesday for several days' outing. During Mr. Cutting's absence, the station will be in charge of E. H. Kiser and Edwin Cutting.

Plainfield Military Band will give an open air concert and lawn party Saturday evening on the lawn in front of E. F. Leavitt's residence. Ice cream and cake will be served. The members of the band cordially invite everyone to be present. A good musical program is anticipated.

Charles Holt celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday Friday, many of his friends and relatives being present to assist him. Mr. Holt is a very active man and in good health, as the following will show: on Thursday Mr. Holt saved one and one-half cords of four foot wood in two twice—not a bad record.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Letters and son returned to their home in Leominster, Mass., Saturday, after spending several weeks at John Shorey's.

The funeral of the late Courtland Perry was held Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church. Rev. W. E. Braisted of Barre officiating. The burial was at the Center cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cutting went to their cottage at Groton Pond Wednesday for several days' outing. During Mr. Cutting's absence, the station will be in charge of E. H. Kiser and Edwin Cutting.

Plainfield Military Band will give an open air concert and lawn party Saturday evening on the lawn in front of E. F. Leavitt's residence. Ice cream and cake will be served. The members of the band cordially invite everyone to be present. A good musical program is anticipated.

Charles Holt celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday Friday, many of his friends and relatives being present to assist him. Mr. Holt is a very active man and in good health, as the following will show: on Thursday Mr. Holt saved one and one-half cords of four foot wood in two twice—not a bad record.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Letters and son returned to their home in Leominster, Mass., Saturday, after spending several weeks at John Shorey's.

The funeral of the late Courtland Perry was held Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church. Rev. W. E. Braisted of Barre officiating. The burial was at the Center cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cutting went to their cottage at Groton Pond Wednesday for several days' outing. During Mr. Cutting's absence, the station will be in charge of E. H. Kiser and Edwin Cutting.

Plainfield Military Band will give an open air concert and lawn party Saturday evening on the lawn in front of E. F. Leavitt's residence. Ice cream and cake will be served. The members of the band cordially invite everyone to be present. A good musical program is anticipated.

Charles Holt celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday Friday, many of his friends and relatives being present to assist him. Mr. Holt is a very active man and in good health, as the following will show: on Thursday Mr. Holt saved one and one-half cords of four foot wood in two twice—not a bad record.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Letters and son returned to their home in Leominster, Mass., Saturday, after spending several weeks at John Shorey's.

The funeral of the late Courtland Perry was held Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church. Rev. W. E. Braisted of Barre officiating. The burial was at the Center cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cutting went to their cottage at Groton Pond Wednesday for several days' outing. During Mr. Cutting's absence, the station will be in charge of E. H. Kiser and Edwin Cutting.

Plainfield Military Band will give an open air concert and lawn party Saturday evening on the lawn in front of E. F. Leavitt's residence. Ice cream and cake will be served. The members of the band cordially invite everyone to be present. A good musical program is anticipated.

Charles Holt celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday Friday, many of his friends and relatives being present to assist him. Mr. Holt is a very active man and in good health, as the following will show: on Thursday Mr. Holt saved one and one-half cords of four foot wood in two twice—not a bad record.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Letters and son returned to their home in Leominster, Mass., Saturday, after spending several weeks at John Shorey's.

The funeral of the late Courtland Perry was held Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church. Rev. W. E. Braisted of Barre officiating. The burial was at the Center cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cutting went to their cottage at Groton Pond Wednesday for several days' outing. During Mr. Cutting's absence, the station will be in charge of E. H. Kiser and Edwin Cutting.

Plainfield Military Band will give an open air concert and lawn party Saturday evening on the lawn in front of E. F. Leavitt's residence. Ice cream and cake will be served. The members of the band cordially invite everyone to be present. A good musical program is anticipated.

Charles Holt celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday Friday, many of his friends and relatives being present to assist him. Mr. Holt is a very active man and in good health, as the following will show: on Thursday Mr. Holt saved one and one-half cords of four foot wood in two twice—not a bad record.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Letters and son returned to their home in Leominster, Mass., Saturday, after spending several weeks at John Shorey's.

The funeral of the late Courtland Perry was held Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church. Rev. W. E. Braisted of Barre officiating. The burial was at the Center cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cutting went to their cottage at Groton Pond Wednesday for several days' outing. During Mr. Cutting's absence, the station will be in charge of E. H. Kiser and Edwin Cutting.

Plainfield Military Band will give an open air concert and lawn party Saturday evening on the lawn in front of E. F. Leavitt's residence. Ice cream and cake will be served. The members of the band cordially invite everyone to be present. A good musical program is anticipated.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Public bath at Hotel Otis, 25 cents.

Parasols at a great discount at Perry's.

To-night, "The Boston Tea Party," at the Comique.

Another lot of those white tinsel belts, 25c, at Vaughan's.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence of Cliff street.

Uneda biscuit, 4 cents a box, at Smith & Cummings' market this week.

John B. Gomo went to Richmond yesterday for a visit with friends.

Nathan Butler went to Northfield this afternoon on a business trip.

J. B. Magnaghi left yesterday on a business trip to Boston and Providence, R. I.

Gilbertson's orchestra played last evening at a private ball in the K. of P. hall at Montpelier.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Waterman and son, Harold, of Johnson, are visiting at the home of William Jackson of North Main street.

Remember the ball game at the Rangers' grounds Thursday afternoon at five o'clock between the Italian A. C. and the "Pirates," a strong local club, for the proceeds will go to assist a sick man. The Italian A. C. is scheduled to play the Grandville A. C. this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Arthur Knight, president of the Barre class and the Christian Endeavor of the Congregational church, was given a surprise party in honor of his birthday at the vestry last evening. Many of the young people of the church were present and a pleasant evening was passed. The following musical program was given: piano duets, Misses Stickney and Kipper; vocal solo, Richard Veale; violin solo, Mr. Brown; vocal solos, Mr. Collins, William McLeod; piano solo, W. H. Messer. Mr. Knight was presented a purse of money, the presentation being made by James Robertson. Cake and coffee were served during the evening.

Orville Clark died Monday evening at age of 70.

Orville Clark died of Bright's disease at the home of his sister, Miss Jane and Abbie Clark, Monday evening after a long illness. Mr. Clark was about seventy years of age and had spent most of his life in this town. He leaves two sisters of this town and two nieces, Mrs. Allen Moore of Montpelier, and Mrs. Chase of Manchester, N. H. The funeral services will be held at his late home Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. P. B. Fisk officiating.

Alonzo Page is at work in E. D. Bartlett's store.

E. F. Leavitt has recently purchased an automobile.

Miss Agnes Olsen of Grandville is the guest of Miss Helen Martin.

Miss Laura Nelson of Montpelier is visiting her aunt, Mrs. T. H. Bartlett.

Miss Amy Fisk of Barton Landing recently visited her brother, Rev. Perrin B. Fisk.

Mrs. Harley Cutler of Barre spent Tuesday at the home of her father, S. S. Smith.

Miss Fidelia Fisk of Boston is spending a two weeks' vacation with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Perin B. Fisk.

Misses Evelyn Perry and Bessie Flood were in Montpelier Friday and Saturday to attend the teachers' examinations.

Mrs. Frank Martin and little daughter and Miss Ethel Bemis were in North Montpelier at the home of A. M. Cate Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Letters and son returned to their home in Leominster, Mass., Saturday, after spending several weeks at John Shorey's.

The funeral of the late Courtland Perry was held Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church. Rev. W. E. Braisted of Barre officiating. The burial was at the Center cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cutting went to their cottage at Groton Pond Wednesday for several days' outing. During Mr. Cutting's absence, the station will be in charge of E. H. Kiser and Edwin Cutting.

Plainfield Military Band will give an open air concert and lawn party Saturday evening on the lawn in front of E. F. Leavitt's residence. Ice cream and cake will be served. The members of the band cordially invite everyone to be present. A good musical program is anticipated.

Charles Holt celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday Friday, many of his friends and relatives being present to assist him. Mr. Holt is a very active man and in good health, as the following will show: on Thursday Mr. Holt saved one and one-half cords of four foot wood in two twice—not a bad record.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Letters and son returned to their home in Leominster, Mass., Saturday, after spending several weeks at John Shorey's.

The funeral of the late Courtland Perry was held Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church. Rev. W. E. Braisted of Barre officiating. The burial was at the Center cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cutting went to their cottage at Groton Pond Wednesday for several days' outing. During Mr. Cutting's absence, the station will be in charge of E. H. Kiser and Edwin Cutting.

Plainfield Military Band will give an open air concert and lawn party Saturday evening on the lawn in front of E. F. Leavitt's residence. Ice cream and cake will be served. The members of the band cordially invite everyone to be present. A good musical program is anticipated.

Charles Holt celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday Friday, many of his friends and relatives being present to assist him. Mr. Holt is a very active man and in good health, as the following will show: on Thursday Mr. Holt saved one and one-half cords of four foot wood in two twice—not a bad record.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Letters and son returned to their home in Leominster, Mass., Saturday, after spending several weeks at John Shorey's.

The funeral of the late Courtland Perry was held Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church. Rev. W. E. Braisted of Barre officiating. The burial was at the Center cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cutting went to their cottage at Groton Pond Wednesday for several days' outing. During Mr. Cutting's absence, the station will be in charge of E. H. Kiser and Edwin Cutting.

Plainfield Military Band will give an open air concert and lawn party Saturday evening on the lawn in front of E. F. Leavitt's residence. Ice cream and cake will be served. The members of the band cordially invite everyone to be present. A good musical program is anticipated.

Charles Holt celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday Friday, many of his friends and relatives being present to assist him. Mr. Holt is a very active man and in good health, as the following will show: on Thursday Mr. Holt saved one and one-half cords of four foot wood in two twice—not a bad record.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Letters and son returned to their home in Leominster, Mass., Saturday, after spending several weeks at John Shorey's.

The funeral of the late Courtland Perry was held Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church. Rev. W. E. Braisted of Barre officiating. The burial was at the Center cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cutting went to their cottage at Groton Pond Wednesday for several days' outing. During Mr. Cutting's absence, the station will be in charge of E. H. Kiser and Edwin Cutting.

Plainfield Military Band will give an open air concert and lawn party Saturday evening on the lawn in front of E. F. Leavitt's residence. Ice cream and cake will be served. The members of the band cordially invite everyone to be present. A good musical program is anticipated.

Charles Holt celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday Friday, many of his friends and relatives being present to assist him. Mr. Holt is a very active man and in good health, as the following will show: on Thursday Mr. Holt saved one and one-half cords of four foot wood in two twice—not a bad record.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Letters and son returned to their home in Leominster, Mass., Saturday, after spending several weeks at John Shorey's.

The funeral of the late Courtland Perry was held Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church. Rev. W. E. Braisted of Barre officiating. The burial was at the Center cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cutting went to their cottage at Groton Pond Wednesday for several days' outing. During Mr. Cutting's absence, the station will be in charge of E. H. Kiser and Edwin Cutting.

Plainfield Military Band will give an open air concert and lawn party Saturday evening on the lawn in front of E. F. Leavitt's residence. Ice cream and cake will be served. The members of the band cordially invite everyone to be present. A good musical program is anticipated.

Charles Holt celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday Friday, many of his friends and relatives being present to assist him. Mr. Holt is a very active man and in good health, as the following will show: on Thursday Mr. Holt saved one and one-half cords of four foot wood in two twice—not a bad record.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Letters and son returned to their home in Leominster, Mass., Saturday, after spending several weeks at John Shorey's.

The funeral of the late Courtland Perry was held Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church. Rev. W. E. Braisted of Barre officiating. The burial was at the Center cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cutting went to their cottage at Groton Pond Wednesday for several days' outing. During Mr. Cutting's absence, the station will be in charge of E. H. Kiser and Edwin Cutting.

Plainfield Military Band will give an open air concert and lawn party Saturday evening on the lawn in front of E. F. Leavitt's residence. Ice cream and cake will be served. The members of the band cordially invite everyone to be present. A good musical program is anticipated.

Charles Holt celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday Friday, many of his friends and relatives being present to assist him. Mr. Holt is a very active man and in good health, as the following will show: on Thursday Mr. Holt saved one and one-half cords of four foot wood in two twice—not a bad record.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Letters and son returned to their home in Leominster, Mass., Saturday, after spending several weeks at John Shorey's.